

CATHARINECLARKGALLERY

Join us at Catharine Clark Gallery for an evening of performance, wine tasting and a silent auction.

The gallery concludes its 2019 BOX BLUR season of performances with its annual holiday benefit on Sunday, December 15. This year's event supports the San Francisco Arts Education Project (SFArtsED). For 51 years, the San Francisco Arts Education Project has partnered children in San Francisco public schools with some of the Bay Area's finest artists in the visual and performing arts for life changing in-school residencies, after-school programs, weekend workshops, and summer camps.

Join us on December 15 from 4 - 6pm for performances by students from SFArtsED's Players, featuring songs from the musical Matilda.

There will also be an interactive performance by artist Ellen Sebastian Chang from our current exhibition How to Fall in Love in A Brothel which is up through December 21st.

The Silent Auction will include studio visits with artists: Al Farrow, Andy Diaz Hope and Laurel Roth, Deborah Oropallo, Jon Benson, Josephine Taylor, Kara Maria; the opportunity to commission your own piece of melted lead crystal with Katherine Vetne; a printmaking lesson with Mallowney Printing; and tickets to SF Dance Film Festival 2020.

Tickets are available via Eventbrite and are $25. Children under the age of 12 do not need to purchase a ticket. 100% of the proceeds go to San Francisco Arts Education Project

Hard Six Cellars produces minimal intervention, single-vineyard wines from the Napa and Sonoma Valleys. Co-owner Wayne Fingerman will be pouring their 2015 Sauvignon Blanc and will be available to answer questions about their project. Twenty five percent of all sales at the event will directly benefit SFArtsED. The winemaking effort at Hard Six Cellars strives to produce wines that are true expressions of vintage and place, letting each season and site make its mark. Hard Six

Cellars wine labels exhibit works by Nancy Grossman (Tasmanian Meanmouth, 1969 and Cloud Figure Seated, 1976) and Jay DeFeo (Seven Pillars of Wisdom No. 7, 1989). These artists bring expressive force and an underlying grace to their work, each in their distinct manner. Hard Six Cellars hopes to convey that same spirit in their wines.
